We have experience in assisting clients across the full spectrum of insurance and reinsurance e.g. third party liability, including commercial general liability, directors' and officers' liability, employers' liability, professional indemnity, products liability, financial institutions and Bermuda Form; and first party insurance, including marine & energy, property, business interruption, cyber risk and more.

Our insurance & reinsurance lawyers have represented leading companies in numerous (re)insurance arbitrations and court cases. Our lawyers have addressed all commonly recurring claims and coverage issues, as well as many unique market situations. While our team comprises skilled litigators who frequently receive awards in favour of our clients, we also assist clients in resolving disputes through alternative means, such as mediation and negotiation, and strongly encourage these alternatives wherever appropriate. We also assist companies in comprehensive reviews of contract wordings and developing treaty guidelines.

Cooley's in-depth experience in insurtech issues, both regulatory and industry-wide, enables us to confidently represent our clients in transactions and related disputes involving insurers, reinsurers, financial institutions, brokers and insurance-based technology companies around the globe. Our lawyers have market-leading experience advising companies on insurtech issues that are at the forefront of groundbreaking legal issues.

Our insolvency and run-off lawyers are specialists in restructuring insurance companies, both insolvent and solvent, using schemes of arrangement and in handling all contentious issues that arise on insolvency and in run-off.

Cooley has 900 lawyers across 13 offices in the United States, China and Europe.
