IRLA announces re-election of Board members

Following the Annual General Meeting, James Bolton of Quest Group, Jenny Fair of Fidelis Consultants Limited and Stephen Roberts of RiverStone Management Limited were re-elected as Directors of IRLA, having put themselves forward for re-election.

Paul Corver said in his Chairman's speech "The Board is delighted with the continued support from its existing membership and the growth in new members. This is reflective of the continued advancement of the recognition of effective legacy liability management as a tool to manage capital and risk exposures." "IRLA has remained engaged and proactive with the broader professional development agenda of the London Market. IRLA provides speaker expertise regularly to UK and international seminars and acts as a voice of the legacy sector in the insurance press."

Amy Berry was formally appointed Chairman of IRLA's Young Professionals Group, by a silent ballot of her peers.

EDITOR NOTES

Who... IRLA is the UK market body for insurance and reinsurance legacy management professionals. IRLA is recognised as the voice of the legacy management sector by a range of government and market bodies including the UK Financial Conduct Authority, the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, the Department of Work and Pensions, as well as the Employers Liability Tracing Office. IRLA is also affiliated with several other market associations all the while working with these others to increase benefits to members.

What... IRLA activities range from industry consultation with government to promotion of the sector's skills and expertise. In particular, the IRLA Academy provides top quality, competitively priced, training that is fully accredited by the Chartered Insurance Institute, one of the world's premier professional training organisations for the general insurance industry. IRLA has also established its own annual awards designed to promote and recognise excellence in legacy management.

Why... IRLA's mission is to be an exciting and dynamic platform for insurance and reinsurance legacy professionals from the UK, European and worldwide markets, to network, share expertise and best practice, enhance learning and continue to innovate.
