

IRLA YPG Committee requirements

This is a prestigious but voluntary role, with the following minimum commitment:

- Attend one committee meeting per month (alternates between telephone and face to face meetings)
- Assist with “YPG guest meet and greet” at IRLA networking drinks
- Proactively help to share additional tasks where necessary (e.g. generating relevant news and ideas, supporting the organisation of IRLA’s YPG events etc.)

Meeting attendance

There is no fixed period for a committee member to serve, but three (3) years is usually the norm; resignation can be made and accepted via the committee chairman or to Secretariat. However, if three (3) consecutive meetings are missed, or in a six-month period only three (3) or fewer meetings have been attended then the committee member will be asked to consider stepping down until their other commitments allow them to act as an informed IRLA representative once more.

To apply for this role, please email registrations@irla-international.com and give us a short (100 word) summary of why you would like to join the committee and what you could bring to the role.
