

IRLAASIA - activity and update

Dear friends and colleagues, it has been quite a while since we first announced our initial foray into the Asian market by inviting you to the launch of IRLA Asia in February 2020.

We have been closely involved in what our colleagues in Singapore are doing with regards to Covid-19 - please click here for more information, and we are thinking this is the time for the event to be considered once more. The office is recording interest in the event and you can sign up here. This will help us judge how soon, once Asia is flying again, we can chose a date. Here is the programme. We will consider holding a preliminary webinar event prior to the main event if this proves to be a more prudent option.

If you have Asia based colleagues or partners, please do pass this invitation along. If you wish to be involved in the Asia chapter please do contact Secretariat in the first instance here, we are looking for sponsors, speakers and ambassadors.

Stay safe and well.
