

New Committee Members - Young Professionals Group

IRLA is delighted to welcome new members to the YPG Committee, which is now at full strength. Here is a full list of your committee:

- Amy Berry (Chairman) - PwC
- Dan Cordina (Deputy) - Ernst & Young
- Nicola Gaisford - Randall & Quilter
- James Strudwick - Natwest
- Louise Squire - Rio Tinto
- Gian Luigi Di Franco - Riverstone
- Thomas Spring - Langleys
- Richard Burrows (new member) - Weightmans
- Alison Drake (new member) - AXA Liabilities Managers
- Elena Green (new member) - Pro Global
- Janic Schilling (new member) - Swiss Re
- Ellina Catherwood (new member) - Quest Consulting

The YPG is dedicated to encouraging and supporting younger and less experienced colleagues in the legacy market. Amongst other things they arrange social and CPD learning events, including quizzes and fundraising events. They are involved in IRLA's upcoming charity tandem skydive, raising funds for Young Minds and Alzheimer's Research UK.

The next Link & Learn session will be in respect of UK disease claims (details to be released soon). The YPG will also be involved within IRLA Congress, including break-out sessions and networking opportunities, both with other YPGs and senior IRLA members.

The YPG are also keen to promote and become more involved in environmental and conservation projects being developed by members. Please do get in contact if we can get involved or promote your project.

For details of the YPG please click here and for further information on becoming a YPG member click here.

Amy Berry
YPG Chairman