

AIRROC 2020 FORUM

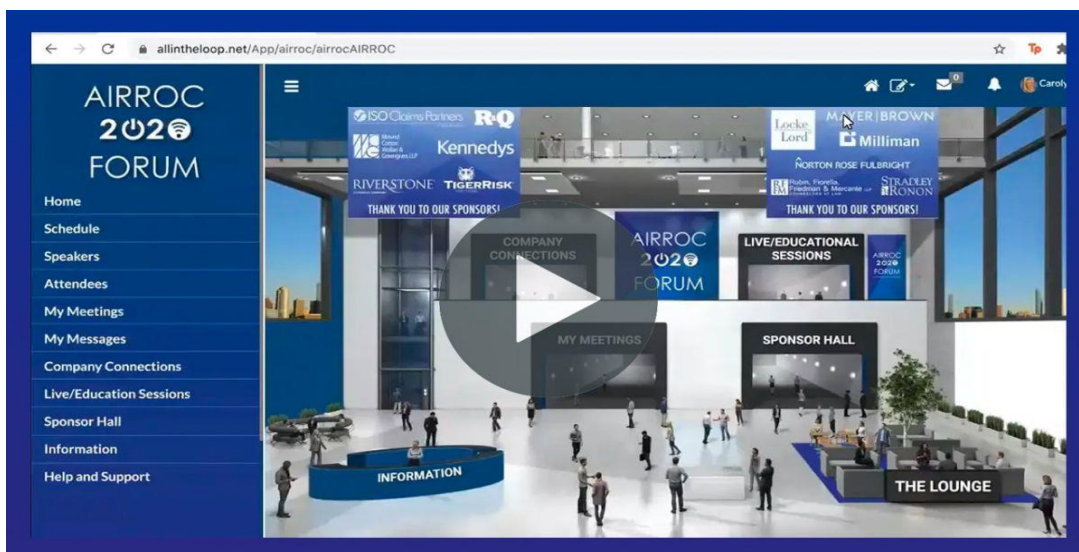

OCTOBER 19-20, 2020 | A VIRTUAL EVENT

*Next week the leaders in legacy will be logging
in for AIRROC's 2020 Forum*

Are you among them?

Less than one week from today kicks off AIRROC's biggest event of the year! The platform is open and meeting schedules are being set. There are more than 300 delegates from nearly 70 companies who will be there — and the list grows by the day.

Take a look at the tour of our custom platform here:

Here are 5 reasons that you don't want to miss
AIRROC's first full virtual conference:

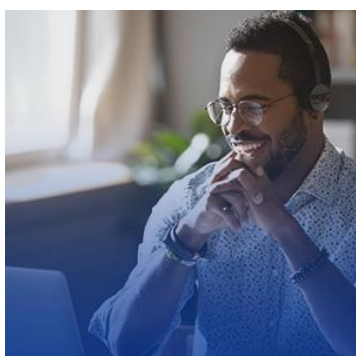

1. Connect, Transact, Network

Schedule times to meet in our custom designed virtual platform. Secure connections with all parties on video all you to see each other and advance your business deals. Unlimited chances to connect and engage with the players in the legacy industry.

2. Industry Keynote Speaker

Jonathan Isherwood, Chief Executive Officer, Reinsurance Americas, Swiss Re. Jonathan will offer his insights on the year behind us and a look ahead at the industry.

3. Connections and Cocktails

Grab your favorite beverage and join various video networking rooms for some informal time to network with other delegates.

We have lots of conversations to join!

4. Recognize and Honor

Meet the student who is receiving the Trish Getty Scholarship, and be ready to honor AIRROC's Person of the Year.

5. Informal Group Chats and Conversations

We all miss seeing each other and having the chance to catch up. The AIRROC event will provide lots of opportunities to do just that.
