

New Era in EU-US Data Transfers: Unpacking Draft EU Standard Contractual Clauses

Webinar

Join Cooley's European and US cyber/data/privacy team leaders to learn about the draft Standard Contractual Clauses that the European Union proposed on November 12, 2020.

We will focus on the impact the new Clauses will have on businesses, including:

- What's in the new Clauses? Will they be more onerous?
- How the new Clauses' broader scope will make them feasible for EU-based processors looking to send data to the US.
- The long shadow of FISA – transfer impact assessments.
- What to expect next and how to prepare.

Attendees can join with questions for our panelists, or submit questions here ahead of time.
