

IRLA Breakfast Briefing

US Restructuring Developments

15 March 2021/On-line

Your speakers

Robert Redpath, Senior Vice President, US Legal Director – Enstar (US), Inc.
Robert Redpath heads up the corporate legal and regulatory department at Enstar US and is a member of the Enstar US Executive Management Team. He is an attorney licensed to practice in New York, where he based. As part of his role, he interacts with the various US state regulators on Enstar M&A and corporate restructuring projects.

Prior to joining Enstar, Robert worked for Hannover Re in both Hannover, Germany, and in New York, where he managed the Clarendon run-off. He began his legal career working as a solicitor in London. He received his law degree from University College London, a diploma in business studies from the London School of Economics and a masters in German law from the University of Mainz in Germany.
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/robert-redpath-5a239215/>

James Mills, Vice President, Legal Counsel - Enstar (US), Inc.

James Mills, having joined Enstar in 2019, James is responsible for providing expertise on US state regulatory and guaranty fund systems, and advising on legislative and business development initiatives.

Prior to joining Enstar, James served as the Chief Deputy Insurance Commissioner for the State of Oklahoma, where he helped set the regulatory landscape for numerous new and innovative areas of regulation, including health insurance, workers' compensation, captive insurance, insurance business transfers, and receivership law. James is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma College of Law and also holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Oklahoma Price College of Business. James holds the designation of Certified Insurance Resolutions Director by the International Association of Insurance Receivers and was designated a Professional in Insurance Regulation by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/jamesamills/>