

IRLA BREAKFAST BRIEFING

US Restructuring Developments

March 15 2021 14:00 GMT / online

OVERVIEW

Covid-19 may have kept many of us in our homes, but the marketplace has continued to evolve and grow signified by the recent Oklahoma law change allowing for Insurance Business Transactions (IBT), similar to the UK Part VII. In this briefing members will be taken through the process recently and successfully completed by our speakers.

TARGET AUDIENCE

All legal, claims, actuarial, financial, reserving and technical staff interested in direct liabilities transfers should attend to hear about recent developments in the United States allowing for new types of transactions, including an overview of the court approval of the nation's first insurance business transfer (IBT).

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this briefing participants will be able to:

- Recall the regulatory framework for US insurance regulation
- Identify the difference between a legal entity sale, reinsurance loss portfolio transfer, traditional novation, insurance business transfer, and division
- Weigh benefits and challenges to the various US frameworks when evaluating a transaction
- Summarize the process of an insurance business transfer and a division

All speakers have many years' practical experience in their professional fields, and their real life practical responses will help every delegate. Biographies can be found on the event page of our website.
